DIAMONDS FOR AFRICA

At Real Diamonds, our roots are firmly planted in the soil that is Africa, a continent that is synonymous with great beauty and mystery, antiquity and treasure. It's a continent that despite wars, conflicts and suffering continues to endure, to sustain and give of herself. And it's from Africa that we take our inspiration, our conscience and our love of all things beautiful. It's these roots that we tap into to make sustainable jewellery, made for all kinds of love.

Our love of the African earth means we only use lab-grown, or as we prefer to say, nurtured diamonds in our jewellery. These nurtured diamonds are identical physically and chemically to earth-mined diamonds, but with the added benefit of being ultimately sustainable, conflict-free and ethical.

All our gold is also locally sourced and locally manufactured, thereby sustaining local communities by keeping Africa's wealth in Africa. Whether it's 9kt or 18kt, white, yellow or rose gold, it's African and it's ours!

At Real Diamonds, we are for all kinds of love and we believe that our jewellery mirrors the fluidity of love and its hundreds of nuances. So, whether it's a bespoke creation for the ultimate occasion or just an everyday spoil, our wide range of nurtured diamond jewellery will ensure you shine on with a clean conscience, time and time again.

Join us in loving Africa, protecting her resources, easing conflict and giving back by choosing only nurtured diamonds. Join us in love, in beauty and sustainability. Choose us because we care, and because we know you do too.
